CCW News

Between now and February 8, the feast day of St. Josephine Bakhita, patron of trafficking victims, HGCCW is sharing information to build awareness in our parish community of this issue.

Can you recognize the signs that someone is a victim of human trafficking?

- Having no identification or personal documentation
- Person does not seem to be in control of their own finances, or has few belongings
- Person is coerced into providing sex acts
- Unexplained injuries, bruises, cuts, often in varying degrees of healing
- Wears same clothing, lives in unsuitable conditions
- Fearful of law enforcement or receiving help
- Unable to move independently or leave their job or residence
- In a dominant relationship and is being coached, watched, and never alone
- Is anxious, evasive, confused, or fearful

Do not intervene if you suspect someone is being trafficked, observe and document what you see. Call the TN Human Trafficking Hotline 855-558-6484 or the National HT Hotline 888-373-7888 to report suspicions.

The Martha and Mary Guild crochets and knits prayer shawls and lap robes for our sick and homebound parishioners and baby blankets for the Ladies of Charity layette program on Tuesday mornings in the JP II Room. Yarn donations are also welcome.

We also welcome anyone who would like to work on their own project with a faith-filled group. For more information, call Chris Leach (865) 898-1398 or Cheryl Ewanski (315) 488-1347.

Sacred Heart Enthronement

Consider having your home enthroned to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Jesus made 12 promises to those who devote themselves to his Sacred Heart including establishing peace their homes.

Contact Deacon Gordy and Fran Lowery to learn more about how to enthrone your home to the Sacred Heart of Jesus at (423) 312-3185 or (423) 312-4934.

Those unable to attend Mass and who would like to receive the Blessed Sacrament, please contact Pat Pennebaker at 687-7849.

Sunday is the most appropriate day for the Eucharist to be taken to those who cannot be part of the community’s celebration. It is most fitting that extraordinary ministers go directly from the Sunday or weekday Mass carrying Communion to the sick and homebound.

If you would like to participate in this valuable ministry as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, call Pat Pennebaker.

2nd Sunday after Epiphany (January 19, 2020)
St. Edmund Campion Missal & Hymnal:
Proper Prayers and Readings (page 61)

THE TRADITIONAL EPIPHANY GOSPELS
Following the “traditional twelve days of Christmas” and the 8-day season of Epiphany from January 6 to January 13, the “season after Epiphany” extends from January 14 up to Septuagesima Sunday, the first of the three pre-Lenten Sundays on the traditional Church calendar.

The liturgy of this extended season features the five great Epiphany Gospels given to us by the Church (in the traditional calendar and liturgy) on its principal feasts and Sundays. Each of these Gospels presents a particular manifestation of the Divinity of Our Lord:

The Epiphany (Jan. 6) — Matthew 2:1-12
Our Lord makes himself known to the Magi by means of a star, and receives their adoration in Bethlehem.

The Baptism of the Lord (Jan. 13) — John 1:29-34
At His Baptism in the Jordan by John, the Holy Ghost descends in the form of a dove, and the voice of the Father reveals Jesus as His Beloved Son, in whom He is well pleased.

2nd Sunday after Epiphany — John 2:1-11
At the wedding feast in Cana of Galilee, Jesus, at His-Mother’s bidding, changes water into wine.

3rd Sunday after Epiphany — Matthew 8:1-13
Jesus, with a word, cleanses a leper.

4th Sunday after Epiphany — Matthew 8:23-27
Jesus calms the raging sea.

Go to www.knoxlatinmass.net for this week’s newsletter and more about the traditional season after the Epiphany, which corresponds to the initial weeks of “ordinary time” in the newer liturgical calendar.
