HOLY GHOST CATHOLIC CHURCH

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER • MAY 3, 2020

Public Masses to resume on Pentecost

Bishop Richard F. Stika has expressed his desire to resume public Masses at all of the parishes and mission churches in the Diocese of Knoxville the weekend of Pentecost Sunday, May 30-31. "I understand how much our parishioners want to return to their churches, see their priests, and once again have a personal connection with the sacraments. However, there are steps we need to take to ensure that we can do this safely," he said. Bishop Stika is working with diocesan pastors, priests, and health-care experts to consider ways to implement the safety guidelines and mandates recently issued by public-health authorities to be in compliance with these guidelines.

Bishop Stika stated that more details will be forthcoming in the next few days. He stated that the faithful will still be dispensed from their obligation to attend Sunday Mass and that parishes that are currently livestreaming their Sunday/weekday Masses should continue for the foreseeable future.

All notifications will be sent via e-mail and be posted on the parish website.

Misas públicas se reanudarán en Pentecostés

El obispo Richard F. Stika ha expresado su deseo de reanudar las misas públicas en todas las parroquias e iglesias misioneras de la diócesis de Knoxville el fin de semana de Pentecostés, del 30 al 31 de mayo.

El obispo Stika declaró que en los próximos días se presentarán más detalles. Afirmó que los fieles seguirán siendo dispensados de su obligación de asistir a la misa dominical y que las parroquias que actualmente están transmitiendo en vivo sus misas de domingo/día de la semana deben continuar en el futuro previsible.

PARISH LATIN MASS NEWS

Noon each Sunday: Sung Latin High Mass with Gregorian chant and sacred polyphony

Third Sunday after Easter (May 3, 2020)

Proper Prayers and Readings:

Angelus 634, Baronius 671, Campion 275

*"The Most Beautiful Thing
This Side of Heaven"*

The famous words of Fr. Frederick Faber, describing the venerable Latin Mass of the Ages. He continued:

"It came forth out of the grand mind of the Church, and lifted us out of earth and out of self, and wrapped us round in a cloud of mystical sweetness and the sublimities of a more than angelic liturgy, and purified us almost without ourselves, and charmed us with the celestial charming, so that our very senses seemed to find vision, hearing, fragrance, taste, and touch beyond what earth can give".

A MASS FOR ALL OUR SENSES

SIGHT Ad orientem celebration (as above) is a visual showing vividly that the focus of the old Mass is God alone, not us. It provides a sense of the sacred that simply must be experienced to appreciate it fully.

SOUND The liturgical use of Latin immediately transports the faithful from the secular into the sacred. As do both the beauty of Gregorian chant and the sacred silence during the Roman canon.

SMELL Incense throughout the Mass symbolizes the smoke of purification and sanctification, and the prayers of the faithful rising to heaven.

TOUCH Felt in kneeling frequently throughout the Mass. For the incarnation in the Creed, and most notably, for the reception of Holy Communion.

TASTE Reception on the tongue fosters a true sense of the sacred. The universal practice for fifteen hundred years that, now more than ever, speaks to the sanctity of the moment.
